

IS WEARING ARTICLES OF FAITH A REAL THREAT TO EUROPEAN DEMOCRACIES?

A TIMELY SEMINAR, EXPLORING:

- Religious Symbols, clothing and headwear: employers and reasonable accommodation.
 - Religious Symbols, clothing and headwear: in the public space.
 - Secular Society and freedom to manifest religion and belief.
- Neutrality of the state in education and health: a right irrespective of religious or non-religious affiliation.

DATE: 3rd - 4th December, 2013

VENUE: European Parliament/Centre Espaces, Brussels, Belgium

TUESDAY 3RD DECEMBER:

Lunch at 12.30pm | Seminar 1pm-6pm | Evening meal at 6.30pm

WEDNESDAY 4TH DECEMBER:

9.30am – 12.30pm Policy & Implementation workshops

Speakers:

From the European Parliament - Freedom of Religion & Belief Group, key religious, minority & humanist networks, and the European Network Against Racism.

Audience:

Comprising MEPs, EU Officials, European and Member States, religious and convictional NGOs, human rights NGOs, national government representatives.

Registration:

To register, please visit <https://enorb4.eventbrite.com>

General enquiries:

332 Rue Engeland, 1180, Brussels, Belgium.
Tel. +322 374 7733 E-mail. enorb@enorb.eu Web. www.enorb.eu

enorb

European Network on Religion & Belief

www.enorb.eu